

RE-ADMISSION

- 1. Students who have studied at AFU and missed attending 2 consecutive semesters without permission, (excluding the summer semester) may apply for re-admission by completing the re-enrollment form (A27) which can be obtained from the Admission and Registration Office.

To be eligible for readmission, the applicant must meet the following conditions:

- The applicant was not subject to academic or behavioral dismissal from the university
 - The applicant must meet the admission requirements at the time of readmission
 - If the applicant transferred from AFU University to another accredited institution, then he/she must apply as a transfer student.
 - No student will be re-admitted until all fees, charges and dues owed to the university have been paid. A non-refundable re-admission fee of AED 1,000 is applied.
- 2. The re-admission policy applies to the new students whom have been admitted and granted a university student ID but did not register for any courses in their first semester at the university.
