

CV Writing Workshop

Al Falah University in cooperation with Mark Williams Employment Services organized a workshop on CV Writing and answering interview questions when applying for a job.

The workshop dealt with a number of topics, the most important of which is the basic structure of writing a CV in a professional manner and tips on what to include in a CV that will interest future employers.

Towards the end of the workshop, recruitment companies accepted CVs from the students and conducted formal interviews.

For more Visit: <https://bit.ly/2ommuBq>

Tags:

Featured News