

Disciplinary policy, rules regulations and implementation

Organized by the College of Law and in collaboration with the Student Affairs Unit, a lecture about student discipline regulations was delivered by Dr. Mohammed Desouky, Dean of the college of law and attended by several university faculty members.

During the lecture, faculty members were informed of a committee dealing with the discipline and behavioral violations related to students' examinations.

Dr. Desouky reiterated the need to be cautious with regards to students holding on to their mobile phones and note cards during examinations.
