

Graduation Requirements

To be eligible for the award of a degree, a student must:

- Successfully complete all the courses and requirements of the program of study as mentioned in the program study plan.
- Spend the minimum period, stipulated for the award of the degree, and not exceed the maximum period as specified in each program. However, students transferred from other universities/colleges must earn at least 50% of the required credits for undergraduate, in order to graduate at Al Falah University.
- All financial obligations of the student towards the University must be settled through the clearance process. As well as completing the end of program evaluation surveys.
- All Students eligible for graduation need to fill out the Application Form for Graduation during the registration period of the last expected semester of study and to submit it to the Admission and Registration Unit.