*Important Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• National Public or Religious Holidays are subject to confirmation from the government.• A student who has been given an "incomplete" grade in a course should re-take the final examination or submit the required work before the end of the Add and Drop period of the following regular semester (and as per the academic calendar) in which he/she registers. Failing to do so will result in receiving an "F" grade which will be recorded on the student's transcript. The student has to pay the registration fees of the semester in which he/she will sit for the incomplete exam.
