

Al Falah University: Primed for the new Academic Year 2016 – 2017

Al Falah University completed its preparation to welcome students for the Academic Year 2016 – 2017. The College of Business Administration, College of Law and College of Mass Communication are equipped to receive new and current students for the first semester opening on the 17th of September 2016.

The Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dr. Sameer Al Barghouthi stated that the University worked hard to implement comprehensive plans in preparation for the coming year. It involves employing a number of qualified faculty members with scientific expertise in a wide variety of academic programs offered by the University.

In addition, service facilities, halls and laboratories were developed and furnished to fully accommodate the population of new students as well as updating the electronic network and IT centers at the University. All arrangements are achieved to establish a learning environment that will meet the students' various needs.
